An indoor full swing practice area and putting green was donated to the University of Nevada-Reno Men’s and Women’s Golf teams. The donation included not only the SYNlawn Golf turfs but also the installation. This indoor practice facility will allow both teams to practice during the winter months when temperatures are too cold, the ground is frozen and it’s not possible to practice on conventional practice ranges.